Spring is in the air and it's time to start think about home improvements. The Lewis & Clark Home Builders Association hopes you make its Fifth Annual Home Show your destination for new ideas and networking with area businesses in the field.

The Lewis & Clark Home Builders Association (LCHBA) Home Show will be held from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturday, March 17 and from noon-4 p.m. Sunday, March 28 at the Kiwanis 4-H/Alcoa Ice Arena, 709 Whiting St., in Yankton.

A wide variety of vendors will showcase their products at the show said LCHBA president and show coordinator, Tim Salvatori.

"We'll have landscapers, contractors, lumber and materials suppliers, local banks, insulators, and heating and cooling guys, just to name a few," he said.

neighbors of ours, but we do have some people coming from Sioux Falls and other areas in the region," Salvatori said.

Admission to the Lewis & Clark Home Builders Association Home Show is $3 for adults and kids 12 and under are admitted free. A coupon for a dollar off admission can be printed from the Lewis & Clark Home Builders Association Web site at lewisandclarkhomebuilders.com, Salvatori said.

come to attend the show, Salvatori said the annual event is held to target the average Do-It-Yourselfer or those that are planning to remodel or build new in the next 6-12 months.

"We're trying to target homeowners who are in the beginning stages of planning a project," he said.

The home show will feature product demonstrations and new this year are programs by area groups including Master Gardeners, Yankton County EMS, Boy Scouts and Dogs R Us.

Most of the show's vendors are local businesses with some draw from the area, Salvatori said, including many returning businesses. The home show gives attendees the chance to talk to the pros about windows, lighting, fireplaces, plumbing, sunrooms and more.
